CONSENT? LET'S TALK ABOUT IT!

CONSENT MUST BE:

- Explicit: A clear and unambiguous verbal agreement. The absence of "yes" means "no". Consent is a definitive, clear, and straightforward "yes".
- A voluntary, sober agreement: Consent is a conscious choice (without being under the influence of alcohol or drugs).
- Never implied or assumed: There are limits to consent and these limits must be respected.
- Reversible: "Yes" once does not mean "yes" all the time. A person can and does have the right to change their mind. Each partner must respect the other's choices.
- Informed: Each partner needs to know the risks of sexually transmitted infection (STI) or pregnancy. Protect yourself!

TÉLÉCOM PARIS' COMMITMENT

Everyone is accountable and united
to build a better life.

+ Nicolas Glady, President of Télécom Paris

To truly exemplify diversity and openness, Télécom Paris must actively prioritize and foster inclusivity. It is imperative that we address gender diversity not only among our students, teachers, and staff but throughout our entire campus. Together, we are responsible for creating a secure, inclusive, and respectful environment that embraces the well-being of everyone.

The fight against harassment, discrimination and abuse, including sexist and sexual violence, is one of Télécom Paris' top priorities. In light of this, we have drawn up an action plan for students and staff, which is divided into five key areas:

1. Awareness-raising and training initiatives for all students, from the moment they arrive at the school and throughout their studies, which are carried out by the Respect & Equality Officers at Télécom Paris.

2. Awareness-raising initiatives carried out by students within the student union, in particular by the REC (Respect, Listening and Consent) Division, which is involved in all aspects of student life including social gatherings and student events.

3. Awareness-raising activities for faculty and staff in the form of a charter and practical workshops.

4. A prevention and counseling center that brings together various cross-disciplinary experts within the school. It's here where all victims and witnesses of sexist and sexual violence can find assistance and support from these contacts.

5. Continuous assessment of perceptions of discrimination via student and staff surveys

Only together can we make our school a welcoming and caring environment.
